

The Relevance of Faith in a Modern World

When?

Thursday 8 September
2011 @ 7:00pm

Where?

Klimentska 18, Prague 1

What?

Food – Talk – Discussion

The First

of seven sessions exploring the meaning of Christian faith
led by David Hellam

Thurs 8 Sept
Thurs 15 Sept
Thurs 22 Sept
Thurs 29 Sept
Thurs 6 Oct
Thurs 13 Oct
Thurs 20 Oct

Out of Date, Out of Touch, Out of Order: Faith's Relevance Now
A Real Redeemer: Who is Jesus?
Reliable or Rubbish: What is the Point of the Bible?
A Reasonable Reality: The Existence of God
A Radical Relationship: The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit
Refreshment to Redirect us: The Purpose of Prayer and Worship
Our Role of Reconciliation: The Place of the Church Today

Want to Know More?

Contact: David Hellam – david@hellam.net – 722 223 097
for more information

Out of Date, Out of Touch, Out of Order is the first of seven sessions exploring the basics of Christian Faith.

The series is aimed at both people who may be sure of what they believe, but would like to be able to effectively explain what their faith means to them; and those who would like to know a little more about Christianity.

The course is led by David Hellam: an experienced teacher who has led similar workshops for churches in the UK, the Bahamas and Kuwait. The first session will be held at Klimentska 18 in Prague 1 at 7:00pm on Thursday 8 September. The rest of the course will take place on the next six Thursday evenings.

If you would like to attend one or more sessions, please let us know in advance, as there will be a buffet provided before the main presentation and discussion. There will be no charge for the event or course materials, you do not have to be a member of St. Clement's Church – or any other church!

For further information, contact: David Hellam – david@hellam.net – 722 223 097